Company: BDCE

Abbreviated bio:

The BDCE team comprises competent and professional practitioners with extensive experience in Organisational Development and Human Capital Development. They work closely with their clients to ensure an outcome-based approach. Their training programmes have been implemented successfully to a wide variety of clients in many industries.

BDCE's approach is based on adult education principles. Their training is characterised by interaction and participation as opposed to traditional theoretical courses. They customise their programmes to meet their clients' specific training needs.

The team provides workshops as well as accredited training through competent facilitators and their QMS includes accredited assessors and moderators.
